

THE BEGINNING OF FIRST SMELLY LIFE ON EARTH.

Narrator: Once upon a time a group of bacteria crawled onto land

(group of four crawl onto the stage and stand up)

Narrator: They included: Mr Curious ...

Mr Curious: (approaches random member of the audience) What is that on your shirt?

Narrator: ... Mr Scared

(Mr Scared hides behind the others)

Narrator: ... Mr Disinterested

Mr Disinterested: I really don't care about this. But what's for lunch?

Narrator: ... and Mr Confused

(Mr Confused stares blankly ahead and cannot be disturbed)

Narrator: Sadly Mr Curious collapsed because his lungs weren't fully developed for life on land.

(Mr Curious falls to the ground)

Narrator: Mr Scared dived back into the sea

(Mr Scared runs off the stage)

Narrator: But Mr Disinterested and Mr Confused stayed on to create life on earth.

(Mr Disinterested and Mr Confused wander off across the stage)

Created and performed by members of Year Six, St Andrew's Primary School, Oxford in June 2009.